ACES 2022	January 12, 2022; tentatively on Washington St. Campus in-person. Also prepping plans for virtual just in case. *Suggestion to look at gym if in-person but with social distancing. Discussing having 1 or 2 keynote speakers, then still with breakout sessions. Try to keep sessions in one building.	Fac Dev committee members have one week to sign up (you can click here!) for their preferred ACES committee. You should choose your committee by March 4th. If you do not choose a committee you will be put on one.

	ACES committee email went out to Faculty Development Committee Wednesday, Feb 24th. Each committee will also need a Chair that is responsible for organizing. Call for presenters will be sent out a bit earlier than they have in the past. Considering sending it out Spring II so folks have longer to ruminate on presentation ideas. Still to be due mid-October. No theme as of yet.	Each committee needs to pick a Chair and come up with at least one suggestion for an ACES keynote speaker. Keynote suggestions are due by the May Faculty Development Committee.
Survey for Faculty Development	14 people responded. Results are in the Fac Dev Committee folder on Google Drive. Major takeaways: Good - highly enjoy learning from/sharing with each other and good speakers. Feel renewed/inspired after Bad - too long; homework Suggestions for keynote: Flower Darby, Mike Dial, someone discussing how to help students with diverse backgrounds and diversities, Dr. Clunis, Dr. Kee
