Review of Minutes	Minutes for April 14, 2023 were not sent out ahead of time.	Minutes will be sent out through email alongside the April 19, 2023 minutes.
ACES Recap	Discussion regarding a theme and ensuring that all presentations are geared toward the theme. Ordway not being a great spot for sessions was the only really negative feedback.
ACES Speakers 2024	Is the keynote worth the money? Suggestion for a student panel to be the “keynote” - what works for them, what they love, what makes them feel connected. Could include some alumni about what helped them to finish and how AC prepared them for the future. Would we be able to find some that weren’t successful to come back and explain to us what we weren't doing or could do better? Additionally, an idea for AC Resources to present information about their services and what they provide in order to ensure we all know what resources are out there for our students.

Prof. Dev. Ideas for next year	• Google is always a big hit. • More software/instructional technology cohorts. • Emergent Bilingual training • Department Cohorts, with an instructor or two taking each week. • Credit for observing others' classes – but what is the end product? • Recording instructors using engagement strategies in the classroom • Chatbot GPT/AI •	Teaching for Transformation cohort is actually working on how observing other classes could work. Are presenting it to Lori in August of 2023.
Committee Roles	Tabled until next year.
Other Discussion	Please fill out the Faculty Needs Survey so CTL can provide what you need.
