COVID Update

Becky Burton tracks covid cases for all the instructional sites. The week of 9/14/2020 to 9/20/2020 the cases by campus are:

- Washington – 5 positive cases
- East - 0 positive cases
- Hereford - 1 positive cases
- West - 5 positive cases
- Dumas - 0 positive cases
- Online remote – 3 positive cases

The numbers will be posted on the covid information webpage at <https://www.actx.edu/COVID19>.

The college might go back to tech-supported learning due to the rise in positive covid cases. Becky Burton and Frank Sobey will know more once they meet with the college president next week.

Q & A

Q: Requesting advice on how to move forward with advisory committees for classes that are not workforce?

A: Put on hold for now, want to look at mega major advisory boards instead of transfer advisory boards.

Q: Will 360 take place this year, in-person or virtually?

A: Plans are to do 360 in the spring virtually and possibly in person for smaller groups.

Q: Since Cornerstone is gone what will the Faculty Evaluation Process.

A: A simplified evaluation process will begin in Spring 2021.

Q: Will everyone be evaluated before the SACS report?

A: Yes

Q: Will faculty get a week off to prepare for remote learning?

A: No, faculty were advised to prepare classes for the possibility of going remote at the beginning of the semester.
