

Planning and Evaluation Tracking

College Year:

Division of: ITT
Department of: Diesel

Person Responsible: Ed Nolte
Person Responsible: Henry Wyckoff

Purpose Statement: Provide graduates who are prepared for immediate employment in the heavy duty truck industry

Goal Statements	Objectives/Outcomes (including assessment tools and standards)	Results	Use of Results (including improvements and revisions)
1.To provide a skilled workforce for a growing Diesel industry	1. Replace old equipment and add new equipment as industry changes and adds new technology	1. No equipment scheduled for purchase in 2007-2008	1.
2.Ensure a high retention rate for first time automotive students from their first semester to second	2.Upon completion in diesel training 95% of all graduates will have employment in the truck industry as determined by a follow-up survey to all graduates each year	2.	2.

3. Increase number of industry classes

3. No industry classes in 2006-2007 Two iclasses in 2007-2008

3. Two classes taught in 2007-2008

3. Greater number of industry employees with up to date skills

4.

4.

4.

4.

5.

5.

5.

5.

6.

6.

6.

6.

7.

7.

7.

7.

revised 8/1/05