

ADVANCED SURVIVAL TRAINING LAW ENFORCEMENT COURSE – AMARILLO, TEXAS

Law Enforcement Training Course Information:

Our LE/military training is unlike any other. We do not teach out of theory. We only teach what we know, which is the business and art of defeating opponents or attackers. The fundamentals of hand to hand confrontations is the same no matter what you're wearing. Be it board shorts in a cage, jeans and a t-shirt, or a uniform. A fight is a fight. The weapons involved are just an extension of the hand that holds them. If the weapon is held by someone who has no confidence, the weapon is almost useless. We also understand the rules all must follow when in certain uniforms, but that does not and will never change the fundamentals of hand to hand combat.

This training course will test you physically, emotionally and mentally. You will do more than just go through the motions, so that when that moment comes, you will know you have been there before. This course is designed to train safely at high speed, but is also intended to test your heart when the s#t hits the fan.

Learning technique will be a given, but you will also walk away knowing you are mentally and physically ready for that moment. Knowing you are ready, many times, is the difference in the fight.
