School & Workplace Violence: Threat Assessment & Management

Friday, February 8, 2013
8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Course Description

The workplace and school violence threat assessment class will teach law enforcement officials, school officials, and business administrators how to properly evaluate threats of violence. The Secret Service Threat Assessment in Schools model will be discussed along with the FBI Behavioral Science Unit School Shooter Threat Assessment protocol. Both threat assessments are appropriate for workplace violence and other threats as well as school violence. Termination procedures for high risk employees will be examined along with hiring procedures for identifying and excluding high-risk employment applicants. Classification and analysis of threat contents will be discussed. Case studies will be presented by the instructor, participants may provide their own examples, and participants will apply the concepts learned in classroom exercises.
