

SLATT[®]

STATE AND LOCAL
ANTI-TERRORISM TRAINING PROGRAM

Specialized International Terrorism Workshop
January 20, 2016

Criminal Elements of the Sovereign
Citizen Movement Workshop
January 21, 2016

Amarillo, Texas

Who Should Attend: Federal, state, and local law enforcement officers, analysts, and investigators will benefit from attending these workshops. Participants are encouraged to attend both workshops.

The Specialized International Terrorism Workshop explores the ideologies and motivations of international terrorists, provides investigative strategies for developing an effective means of identifying pre-incident behaviors and activities, and details how local communities and law enforcement agencies are impacted. The workshop also outlines how agencies improve their intelligence capacity and emphasizes privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties.

The Criminal Elements of the Sovereign Citizen Movement Workshop addresses the beliefs of sovereign citizens and the threats presented by the criminal extremist element of the movement. The workshop focuses on frauds employed by sovereign citizens and indicators that enable law enforcement officers to recognize sovereign citizens and assess the level of threat.

Hosted by:

- Amarillo College
- Randall County Sheriff's Office
- Regional Organized Crime Information Center[®] (ROCIC)
- Texas Department of Public Safety
