Tip: Staying aware of important dates ensures you don't miss deadlines for registration, payments, and withdrawals. Mark these dates on your calendar and set reminders so you stay on top of your responsibilities.

Payment Deadline = Last day you have to pay for your classes or set up a payment plan to keep your schedule from being dropped.

Census Date = The day the college takes official attendance for classes – after this day, your classes and tuition are locked in. You must be present & active in classes in order for financial aid to be released to you.

Withdraw Deadline = The final date to drop a class before final grades are given – after this date, you'll have to stay enrolled and receive a grade for this course.
