

Amarillo College Curriculum Map Template

Division:	STEM
Degree/Academic Program(s):	Business Administration (BUSI.AS)
Dean:	Edie Carter
Chair/Director/Coordinator:	Adrine Harrell-Carter
Submission Date:	May 3, 2024
Purpose Statement:	To graduate students who demonstrate business knowledge and skills that will transfer directly to working in a business or a B.B.A degree at university level.

Goal #1: To graduate students who demonstrate business knowledge and skills that will transfer directly to working in a business or a B.B.A degree at university level.
Program-Specific Courses	PLO #1: Students will demonstrate knowledge of supply and demand principles as it relates to a global economy.	PLO #2: Students will demonstrate knowledge of marginal analysis principles.	PLO #3: Analyzing marketplace supply and demand to help students understand and analyze empirical data of how supply and demand drives costs and price equilibrium in the market.	PLO #4: Critically evaluate wages and taxation policy to help students understand and analyze how economic marginal analysis applies to wage setting and tax brackets.	PLO #5: Students will demonstrate legal knowledge of different forms of organization and Uniform Commercial Code.
ECON 2301	I, D	I, D	I, D	I, D
ACCT 2301	I, D	I, D			I
ECON 2302	D, M	D, M	D, M	D, M
ACCT 2302			D	D	D, M
BUSI 2301 LLC and Partnership agreements+					D

I = Introduced; D = Developed & Practiced with Feedback; M = Demonstrated at Mastery