Workplace Self-Defense for Women
Self-Defense, Distraction, & Awareness Tactics for Females

Course Description: This female only, eight hour program provides situational awareness and basic self-defense skills. The class is taught by a certified law enforcement officer with years of defensive tactics training experience. This comprehensive course is designed for females, age 15 and up, and includes educational components comprised of lecture, discussion, avoidance and physical resistive strategies. You will learn about situational awareness, response options to bad situations, and basic techniques to protect and defend yourself that you should continue to practice and develop after you complete the class. Research shows that resistance and self-defense training can help prevent you from becoming a victim.

This class is appropriate for all community members and could include mothers/daughters, friends, high school or college students, and working professionals (teachers, nurses, realtors, etc.). No previous physical skills training is necessary. Self-defense is more important than ever…come join those who share your passion to learn, and let us help you build your skills and confidence…so you can go out and Fight Like a Girl!

Wear loose-fitting comfortable clothing, and no sandals or open-toed shoes. Only wrestling shoes or socks are allowed on the training mats.

- Complete the attached PAR-Q Questionnaire before you sign up for class to make sure you are ready for physical activity.
- Complete the attached Release/Talent form and bring to class or complete at the start of class.
