Amarillo College Lynn Library: A Floor-by-Floor Description

On the First Floor, you can:
- Study, collaborate, meet with tutors, or relax. (Study tables and chairs are provided.)

On the Second Floor, you can:
- Get help with research assignments. Learn to use the Library’s online databases of high-quality information sources. Individual appointments are available. Call 371-5403.
- In the Library Learning Commons, use computers by signing in with your student ID number. Access WebAdvisor (for registration, schedules, add/drop courses, and more), AC Online, myAC, Internet sites, Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, (and other applications).
- Print black & white pages for 5¢ per sheet.
- Access computers with DVD-CD RW drives and USB drives.
- Use a scanner.
- Use a color printer (academic use only—costs are posted).
- Make photocopies for 10¢ per sheet. Copy cards are sold for $1. ($5 cards are sold on 4th floor.)
- Use study room for individuals and small groups.

On the Third Floor and Library Basement, you can learn about non-Library services:
- Access Learning Center—371-5434 (3rd)
- Center for Teaching & Learning (CTL)/E-Learning (for Faculty)—371-5214 (3rd)
- ESL (English as a Second Language)—371-5908 (3rd)
- Student Support Services—371-5420 (3rd)
- Peer Tutoring—371-5432 (Basement)

On the Fourth Floor, you can:
- Get a library card or change your AC ID card to a library card. AC honors library cards from area public libraries, too. Community cards are available to the public and are sold on this floor. West Texas A&M University cards are not accepted at AC.
- Print periodicals are housed on this floor, but the AC Library’s periodicals collection is almost entirely online. Ask for help on second floor. (Periodicals are journals, magazines, and newspapers.)
- Check out materials from the Reserve Desk to use in the library.
- Check out other course-related videos and DVDs.
- Get a TexShare card that will enable you to check out books at West Texas A&M and other libraries.
- Make photocopies for 10¢ per sheet. Copy cards are sold for $1 and $5.
- Access a TV to play videotapes and DVDs (for academic purposes).
- Study in a quiet area.
