Modern Languages
(Revised 2007-04-24)

Web Sites

General

- Language Links—Site description: “Materials for use by teachers and learners of languages.” (University of Wisconsin)

- Yamada Language Guides—Site description: “. . . the definitive guide to language resources on the World Wide Web.” More than 140 languages are included. Some of the resources are font archives and language-related newsgroups and mailing lists. Maintained by the Yamada Language Center at the University of Oregon.

- YourDictionary.com Links to Language Dictionaries—Contains dictionaries for hundreds of languages.

French

- French-English Dictionary from yourdictionary.com.

- French Language Resource Center—A large collection of links from Houghton Mifflin Publishing Company’s College Division. Sections are Culture and History; Music, Radio & Television; News and Magazines; Literature; Language Learning Sites; Chat and Virtual Worlds; Country/City Tours; Grab Bag; and Professional Language Associations

- French Links—A large collection of links from the Sussex Language Institute in England. Contains a map of France with zoom capability to various regions. Sections are News and Media On-Line, Teaching Resources, and Resources for Further Research.

- French Resources—Links from the University of Wisconsin. Sections are Culture and History, Media, Literature and Language, City/Country Tours, and Grab Bag.

- Infoplease Encyclopedia Entry on the French Language

- Resources for Students and Teachers of French as a Second Language—A large collection of links from the University of Ottawa in Canada.
• Yamada Language Center Guide to French—Sections are Language, Culture, and Resources.

German

• English-German Dictionary

• German Language Resource Center—A large collection of links from Houghton Mifflin Publishing Company’s College Division. Sections are Culture and History; Music, Radio & Television; News and Magazines; Literature; Language Learning Sites; Chat and Virtual Worlds; Country/City Tours; Grab Bag; and Professional Language Associations.

• GermanForTravellers.com Exercises—Free exercises to help you learn German.

• Germanic Languages Links—German language references sources and links to additional sites.

• Germanic Resources—Links from the University of Wisconsin. Sections are Lowlands-Related Links, Dutch, German Country/City Tours, News Media and Radio, Literature and Language, and Grab Bag.

• Infoplease Encyclopedia Entry on Germanic Languages

• Language Teaching Resources (German)—Materials created or compiled by Katherine Munro, German teacher. Contains exercises, jokes, tongue twisters, proverbs, links, and more.

• Yamada Language Center Guide to German—Sections are Yamada Resources, Language, and Resources.

Spanish

• Infoplease Encyclopedia Entry on Spanish Language

• Learn Spanish—Site description: “. . . the Internet's most extensive collection of free Spanish learning tools.”

• Spanish Grammar Exercises—Award-winning site featuring grammar exercises, study modules, videos, resources, and more.

• Spanish Language Resource Center—A large collection of links from Houghton Mifflin Publishing Company’s College Division. Sections are Culture and History; Music, Radio & Television; News and Magazines;
Literature; Language Learning Sites; Chat and Virtual Worlds; Country/City Tours; Grab Bag; and Professional Language Associations

- Spanish Resources—Links from the University of Wisconsin. Sections are Culture and History; Music, Radio, and Television/Cinema; News and Magazines; Literature and Language; Virtual Environments; Country/City Tours, and Grab Bag.

- Super Links to Spanish Web Sites—Huge site with hundreds of links to Spanish language and culture resources. (University of Northern Iowa)

- Yamada Language Center Guide to Spanish—Sections are Language Learning, Dictionaries/Spanish Stories, Resources, and Culture.

Electronic Books

Spanish

German
- German (Schaum’s Easy Outlines)—Barber, 2000.

French

• Countdown to French: Learn to Communicate in 24 Hours—Stein, 2004.

Dictionaries—Print

• Cassell’s German and English Dictionary—Sasse, 1986. 433.21 C344. 4th floor. Washington Street Campus library.

• Dictionary of Modern Colloquial French—Herail, 1984. 443.21 H531. 4th floor. Washington Street Campus library.

