Interior Design
(Revised 8-10-2011)

Websites

- Founders of the Arts and Crafts Movement 1870-1900—"An anthology of writings on interior design by William Morris and his contemporaries (including Oscar Wilde, Walter Crane and others)." Includes A Brief Overview of the Early Arts & Crafts Movement in America and selected related links.

- "Mother of all Art and Art History Links"—Sponsored by the School of Art and Design at the University of Michigan. Includes Art History Departments, research resources, resources for visual collections, image collections and online art, online Exhibitions, Fine Art Schools and Departments, Art Museums, textual and linguistic resources, and new media art and resources.

- Search for artists, art works, art movements, art museums—art cyclopedia has web sites to 125,000 works of art, images and information of over 6,000 artists, sites to art movements and art museums.

Textiles

- FabricLink—Site has "innovative educational resources and communication link, developed for the textile/apparel/retail industry and its consumers." Includes a consumer guide, fabric university, retailer’s forum and environmental archive.

- U.S Dept.of Commerce. Office of Textiles and Apparel—Excellent resource for information on trade statistics, textile imports and exports, trade agreements, OTEXA publications, with links to related governmental and non-governmental resources.

Associations

- The American Society of Interior Designers (ASID)—ASID is the leading professional organization for Interior Designers, has 34,500 members and establishes a common identity for professional and businesses in the field of interior design.

- Interior Design Educators Council (IDEC)—IDEC is dedicated to the advancement of education and research in interior design. It publishes the Journal of Interior Design (JID), a scholarly, refereed publication. Many levels of membership are available.

- The International Interior Design Association (IIDA)—IIDA is a professional networking and educational association of more than 10,000 members. Has links to company products. Many membership options are available.
• National Kitchen and Bath Association (NKBA)—has provided information to members (25,000) and consumers about the design, planning and installation of kitchens and baths for over 40 years. Student membership is available.

AC Library Databases

• Academic Search Complete—Largest multi-subject academic database. Good for almost any type of research.

• Student Resources in Context—Multi-subject database that works well for almost any topic. Especially strong in biography, history, and the cultures of various peoples and countries.

Electronic Books

Note: There are a number of books on all aspects of computing in the EBSCO eBooks database. These are just a few samples. Please log in using your WebAdvisor ID and password.

Print Books

Librarians can help students identify suitable books for assignments. You can save time by seeking their assistance.

Washington Street Campus

Walk-in assistance: Go to the second floor of Lynn Library. Use the telephone located on the small table near the main computer sign-in desk to call the research help number, which is posted. The librarian on duty will respond.
Assistance by appointment: Call 371-5403 or 345-5582 to make an appointment for uninterrupted individual help.
Assistance by telephone: Call 371-5468 or toll-free 866-371-5468.

West Campus

Note: The West Campus Library specializes in nursing, allied health, criminal justice, child development, and mortuary science.
Walk-in assistance: Go to the AC area of the Amarillo Public Library Northwest Branch, which is located in the southeast corner of the AC West Campus (closest to Bell Street). (The AC area is located in the back right-hand corner of the building.) The AC librarian on duty will assist you. You will need a valid library card to check out a book. Call 371-5400 for information about how to obtain a library card.
Assistance by telephone: Call 356-3627.