Introduction to Okinawa Kobudo - Bo

$28.00

Okinawan Kobudo is a term loosely translated as "Ancient Martial Way of Okinawa." It is a 20th-Century term referring to the unique Okinawan Martial Art centered on the use of farm implements for self-defense. This introductory class will center around the use of the Bo, a 6-foot long staff derived from a tool called tenbib, which was used to carry buckets or bundles around on either end. Although Kobudo is often associated with Karate training, no prior experience in any martial art is required for this class. Classes are conducted by Lee Gray with 58 years of experience teaching children, adults, armed forces, and police and correction officers. Students are required to provide their own bo. Information on how to obtain a bo will be provided in the first class.

Introduction to Self-Defense Karate

$44.00

Karate is a fun and exciting way to get in shape while empowering you with self-defense skills. In addition to powerful, proven self-defense techniques, karate workouts will provide total body exercise, improved concentration, and a strong sense of security and safety. Classes include instruction in redirection of force, defensive counter measures to striking and kicking attacks, and escape from grabs and restraining attacks, that are sensible, effective, and easy to use by anyone regardless of size or gender. Classes are conducted by Lee Gray with 58 years' experience training children, adults, armed forces, and police and correction officers. An all-white karate uniform (gi) is required. Information on how to obtain a uniform will be available in the first class.

Gymnastics

For additional information please call (806) 356-3668.

Except for "Mommy and Me" classes, gymnastics students must be completely toilet trained. There are no more than 12 students per instructor. All gymnastics instructors are CPR and First Aid certified. Gymnastics classes are in order of level, age, day and time, starting with Monday. Parent Watch Day will be announced the first class day and will also be posted on the bulletin board in the lobby. Please be advised all classes are co-ed unless otherwise noted.

We have two locations on the West Campus for gymnastics:
Building B Room 107 & Gym/Dance Room 101.
